The Northern Light Cinema/WTa Film Evenings

Thankyou to those of you who have joined us for the first two of our Autumn/Winter season Foreign Film Evenings, starting with our launch at the end of September.

Upcoming films are...

Monday 18 November

Les Gardiennes (The Guardians)

(2017) Certificate 15, French with English subtitles.

French rural drama set in World War One.

An affecting human drama of love, loss, and resilience unfolds against the backdrop of World War I.

The women of the Paridier farm, under the deft hand of Hortense, the family's matriarch must grapple with the workload while the men, including two sons, are off at the front.

Monday 16 December

Lore

(2012) Certificate 15, German with English subtitles

As the Allies sweep across Germany, Lore leads her siblings on a journey that exposes them to the truth of their parents' beliefs. An encounter with a mysterious refugee forces Lore to rely on a person she has always been taught to hate.

On both evenings canapés (included in the £11 ticket price) will be served from 18.30, we'll be selling wine and, as always, we'll be holding a raffle to see who gets the sofa seats! The films will be shown at 19.30.

Tickets may now be bought on the door, but we would advise you to avoid disappointment and book in advance at www.thenorthernlightcinema.co.uk.

And more world cinema in Wirksworth...

We have received an invitation from Wirksworth Out & Proud welcoming our members to attend their film evening at The Northern Light Cinema on Wednesday 20 November

Out & Proud - a new season screening in partnership with Wirksworth & District LGBTQIA+ will be showing

Rafiki, Certificate 12A, parts in Swahili with English subtitles.

Kena lives on a Nairobi housing estate with her mother. Helping her father, convenience store owner John, campaign for a local election, she befriends Ziki, the daughter of his political rival. As Kena and Ziki's relationship deepens, so do the stakes, forcing them to choose between openness and secrecy, happiness and safety.

All funds raised will be donated to the Wirksworth Carnival.
£11 per ticket and there will be a free raffle to allocate the armchair and sofa seats.
Tickets can be booked at the NLC website – link above.
